

Getting to know

Jane Clarke

I am the Senco (Special Needs Coordinator) here at Fairburn School. I am lucky enough to work with all teachers across the school and with the fabulous Special Programmes team supporting students who need extra help with their learning.

Last year I got married and changed my name from Fitzgerald to Clarke. This is my family on our wedding day.