

Getting to know Jean Lewis

Kia Ora

I am the Language Alive Teacher in the Junior School. I work alongside the teachers who work with the New Entrants, Years 1 and 2 students. I also have a passion for working with all of our families and encouraging them to participate in our school life.

I am also fortunate to be a Mum and a Nana.

A passion I have is working with this community through my involvement with the Otahuhu Salvation Army.

