

Getting to know...

Marianne Linstead

Tena koutou katoa,

I am the Senior Teacher and Writing Lead Teacher in the Senior School. I have been teaching at Fairburn School since 2004 and absolutely love it. I love working alongside a team of wonderful teachers who are clever, creative and caring. I enjoy getting to know the students and their whanau and look forward to an awesome year with the amazing students in room 27.
