

Getting to know.....

Marise Dormer

I am lucky enough to work in the school office doing all the admin work, answering the telephone, selling books and hats and looking after children who come to the sick bay.