

Getting to know ...

Mrs Sue Nevezie

When Fairburn children come into my room they know they are going to have help to become better at reading and writing and speaking English. I really enjoy seeing their joy and their smiles when they know they are learning more.

